

Delta Dental of Arizona Website Privacy Policy

1. Our commitment to your privacy

Your privacy is important to us, and we are committed to protecting it. We want you to understand how we use your information and that you have choices about how we use it.

Your privacy is not for sale

We do not sell your information.

Our commitment to children's privacy

We respect children's privacy. We do not market our dental plans or products directly to children. If you are under 18, you may use our website under the guidance of a parent or guardian.

2. About this privacy policy

This policy applies to Arizona Dental Services, Inc. which does business as Delta Dental of Arizona and includes all Delta Dental of Arizona websites including but not limited to www.deltadentalaz.com and www.deltadentalazblog.com.

In this policy, we explain:

- The information we collect online and how we use it
- How to access or correct your information
- Our commitment to website security
- How we use technology to better serve you
- About third-party website links
- Contacting us about your privacy or security
- Effective date of this policy

To understand how your protected health information (PHI) may be used and disclosed and how you can access this information, see our HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices at <http://www.deltadentalaz.com/about-delta-dental/privacy-policy.asp>.

Your choices (opting out)

We may send you newsletters or promotional emails that are relevant to supporting our relationship with you. If you'd like to stop receiving email and newsletters from us, you can opt out by following the instructions included in each email or newsletter.

3. Information we collect online

We are very careful with your personal information. We collect it through secure, encrypted channels, limit access to it and prohibit its unlawful exposure.

Examples of the information we may collect from you are:

- Your name
- Email address
- Primary enrollee ID number (may include social security number, employee ID or alternate ID number)
- Date of birth
- Credit card information (if you are purchasing dental benefits online)
- For dentists, your license number or tax identification number

We may also collect information about the device you use to access our electronic services.

Why we need your information

We use your information to help us provide you with tools and services related to our dental plans. We collect this information from:

- Your online registration, enrollment or subscription. We collect information from you when you register for online services, enroll in one of our dental plans online or participate in a promotion. We use this information to service your accounts and online transactions. We may also use it to let you know about our products or services that we think you'd like.
- Your account activity. Once your account has been opened, we collect and maintain information about your account activity. This allows us to administer your account and provide the services you have requested.
- Your website usage. When you visit our website, we may use cookies or other similar web technologies to enhance your web experience. These tools help us to recognize your access device, maintain your web session and provide a more personalized experience. To learn more about how we use technology to help you get the most from our website, see Section 6: How we use technology to better serve you.

Email policies (use of your email)

If you are an enrollee in one of our plans, we may use your email address to contact you with information about your plan or to send you information that you have subscribed to or requested from us.

If you are someone who does business with us (e.g., a broker or dental professional in our network) or a potential customer, we may use your email address to contact you with information about our products and services and other important company news that is relevant to your future or current business relationship with us.

Remember, if you decide that you'd like to stop receiving email from us, you can opt out by following the instructions included in each email or newsletter.

Sharing of information

We do not sell your information. We may share your information with third party companies as necessary to administer your Delta Dental benefits or to provide you with services you have requested from us. These third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

We may also share your information as required or permitted by law.

4. How to access or correct your information

As a user of our online services (enrollees, providers, benefits administrators and brokers/consultants); you can edit your email address, password, and your website preferences online.

If you need to change other information:

- Group enrollees: Contact your plan administrator.
- Individual enrollees, providers and benefits administrators: Contact www.deltadentalcoversme.com.
- Brokers/consultants: If you are receiving emails or newsletters from us, you can change your email address and contact information through the "Manage Subscriptions" link in the footer of the email.

5. Our commitment to website security

Our secure, password-protected website allows you to view private information (for example, eligibility, benefits and claims) and other details online. We use industry-standard firewalls and security measures to protect your information. You need an ID and password to access any online systems that display personal information. Our website features SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) with a digital certificate to enforce a minimum of 128-bit encrypted sessions.

We conduct regular web application vulnerability assessments and quarterly third party tests to ensure all of our externally facing websites/Internet addresses are protected from attack in compliance with industry standards.

6. How we use technology to better serve you

When you visit our website, we use different kinds of tracking technology to collect certain non-personally-identifiable and aggregate information about you. This data helps us to analyze and improve the usefulness of the information we provide at this website. By "non-personally-identifiable information, we mean information that does not identify you personally, but provides us with anonymous "usage data," such as the number of unique visitors we receive, what pages are visited most often and the navigation preferences and characteristics of our visitors.

In order for you to make an informed decision about whether to use and navigate our website, we are providing you with the following information about how we collect and use non-personally identifiable and aggregate information.

Cookies

A "cookie" is an element of data that a website can send to your browser when you link to that website. It is not a computer program and has no ability to read data residing on your computer or instruct it to perform any step or function. By assigning a unique data element to each visitor, the website is able to recognize repeat users, track usage patterns and better serve you when you return to that site. The cookie does not extract other personal information about you, such as your name or address. We use cookies to help us optimize your online experience and to support the delivery of dental benefits information to you. We do not store your personal private information in cookies.

The Help menu on your browser will tell you how to stop your browser from accepting new cookies, how to have the browser notify you when you receive a new cookie or how to disable cookies altogether.

If you turn off cookies, you will still be able to access your account and information, but you may not be able to use some of the features on our website.

Other tracking methods

We use other technology to help us personalize your visit to our site, including, but not limited to, tracking beacons, JavaScript tracking and session tracking. We use these methods to learn how we can make our site better and see how well our marketing campaigns are working. When we use tracking technology in email we may send you, it tells us when you opened the email. This helps us learn how effective our messages are to you.

7. Third-party website links

Our web pages may include links to third-party sites that provide related or helpful information or services. While we try to select quality content and sites, we do not control or operate these sites and our policies and practices do not apply. We recommend that you review the privacy and security policies of any site you visit before sharing your personal or health information.

We may also provide links to other websites that are controlled by the Delta Dental Plans Association or its Member Companies, but that operate independently of DeltaDentalAZ.com or DeltaDentalAZBlog.com. Privacy policies applicable to those sites will appear on those sites and may differ from this Website Privacy Policy.

8. Contacting us about your privacy or security

If you have any questions about how we use your personal information, or about our privacy and security policies that we didn't answer on this page, please contact our privacy department:

Privacy Officer
